

WINE ENTHUSIAST®

Indigenous Grapes Create a New Era for Sicilian White Wine

BY KERIN O'KEEFE

From left to right: COS 2018 Pithos Bianco (Terre Siciliane), Feudo Montoni 2019 Fornelli Inzolia (Sicilia) and Donnafugata 2019 Lighea Zibibbo (Sicilia) / Photo by Jen Johnson

Feudo Montoni 2019 Fornelli Inzolia (Sicilia); $23, 90 points. Lightly scented, this polished white opens with delicate aromas of spring blossom and white stone fruit. Made with organically farmed grapes, the bright, savory palate evokes apple and pear alongside tangy minerality and crisp acidity. Wilson Daniels Ltd.

https://www.winemag.com/2020/10/05/best-sicilian-white-wines/?fbclid=IwAR1Td4q2oa9keqLK1\_bg-WLhj0UPxuQNOBOXAVyaXmdETVKufGHBLWjr9IA